On November 20, 2009, a document called the Manhattan Declaration was presented to the public by a coalition of cobelligerents. The document is concerned primarily with three very important biblical and cultural issues: the sanctity of life, the meaning of marriage, and the nature of religious liberty. Deception-land: The Manhattan Projects – Comic POW! This week we continue with another Hickman series, The Manhattan Projects, and this time the main theme is deception. Hickman does also include his usual themes of hubris, love, and family relationships (particularly the paternal), but deception is the engine that drives this story. What Does the Manhattan Declaration Really Mean ... Late last week, representatives from leading evangelical political advocacy groups unveiled "The Manhattan Declaration," a call for Christian unity on issues of life, marriage, and religious liberty. The coalition of advocacy groups and ministries cut across Christian traditions but did not include many leaders from what some consider the Christian Right's old guard. The Manhattan Deception Kindle Edition - amazon.com "The Manhattan Deception" is an action packed thriller with several interesting twists and turns. Take some high profile World War II people and add in some supposition on what "could" have happened, add some intriguing "what ifs" and provide a plausible conspiracy theory and you have a wonderfully exciting read!
